PulseView - AI Market Intelligence · https://pulse-view.anand-creations.com05/2025 - Present

Founder & Builder

Real-time market analysis platform built for my own trading portfolio first. AI agents generate and justify trading signals using live technical and news-based data streams.

- Real-time event-driven data pipeline: AI agents consume live market feeds, generate signals, and publish justified analysis continuously.
- Core product principle: if the model can't explain the signal, it doesn't ship. Explainability over complexity.
- Opened to retail traders after self-validating. Serving live users with real-time market feeds and signal reasoning.
